TURTLE CREEK TOUR OF HOMES

The tour, which benefits the nonprofit Turtle Creek Association, will feature six homes. The 14th annual event focuses on design and showcasing Turtle Creek lifestyles. Proceeds from the tour will help preserve, protect and enhance the greenways and parklands of the Turtle Creek corridor. Get the addresses on the website and visit each residence in the order you choose.

■ April 12 from 1 to 5 p.m. $60. Tickets are available online through April 10, at each home on the day of the event and at the tour's central parking location at Regency Plaza, 3710 Rawlins St. at Welborn Street, Dallas, on the day of the tour. There will be no parking at individual residences, but complimentary shuttles will be available from the Regency Plaza garage. turtlecreekassociation.org.

ARTS IN BLOOM

FREE More than 150 local and regional artists will showcase their work throughout 12 blocks in McKinney's downtown during this celebration of the arts. The new Arts in Bloom Wine Garden will feature offerings from 12 local wineries on Kentucky Street. You can also expect a farmers market at Chestnut Square, live entertainment throughout the day, food for purchase and more. Music and dining venues will keep activities going into the evening, and some galleries and shops will remain open later than usual as part of the monthly downtown Second Saturdays event.

■ April 11 from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. (Second Saturdays event runs from 7 to 10 p.m.) in the area around 111 N. Tennessee St., McKinney. Free to attend. Parking is free in lots surrounding downtown. downtownmckinney.com.
